

Writing an Abstract

According to Mike Merkel in his

, "An abstract

Purpose and Rationale:

What is the purpose of your project? Why did you undertake the project?

Methodology:

What techniques did you use to gather information? What sources did you use?

Results:

What did you learn? What new facts or lessons did you discover?

Conclusions:

Why do your results matter?

If you have additional questions or would like to have a tutor review your abstract, please visit one of our Writing Centers. Any of our tutors will be happy to assist you with your project.